John McAllister Schofield was born in Terry, N. Y., September 29, 1831. He was a son of Rev. James and Caroline Schofield. He was educated at his place of birth and at Bristol and Freeport, Ill. He entered West Point in 1849, and graduated in 1853. He served in garrisons in South Carolina and Florida until 1855, when he became assistant professor of natural philosophy at West Point, a position which he held

May Yet Beat the East Coast Railway Into Havana.—J. M. Barr Talks of the Company's Plans.

Conspicuous among those to arrive on the steamer Mascotte yesterday was the party of railroad officials of the Seaboard Air Line, says the Havana Post, of a recent date.

Mr. Barr, the president of the road, who is making his first trip here, said that the visit of himself and party was one contemplated some time ago, but which was delayed by circumstances.

"We have come," he said, "to study the resources and the conditions of Cuba. Our line has been doing considerable business with the traffic of the island and we desire to improve the conditions surrounding it, and make it the best to be offered."

Mr. Cost, vice-president of the road, knows Cuba from past experience, and

DISPLAY OF FIREWORKS.

Given Monday Evening—Were Greatly Enjoyed, But Did Not Come Up To Expectations.

The fireworks display given on the City Island last evening, commencing shortly after 7 o'clock, was thoroughly enjoyed by the crowd that lined Beach Street, opposite the island. Several of the pieces were exceptionally pretty, but, as a whole, the display did not come up to the expectations of the people.

Contributions from hotel men and storekeepers paid for the display.

Visitors and residents in Daytona last winter enjoyed a miniature reproduction of the sinking of Cervera's fleet, which was about the best thing in the fireworks line ever seen in Daytona. Many had hoped that last night's display would have been on this order.

LOCAL EVENTS.

Wade H. Jones returned Monday afternoon from a visit to his relatives at Titusville.

C. M. Stone, a well known business man of Jacksonville is in the city for a day or two on business.

An application of paint is being applied to the residence of Mrs. F. C. Allen on Pine street, Daytona Beach.

The friends of Frederick L. Crane, of Daytona Beach, will regret to learn that he has been ill, but he is now convalescing.

Ed. Lowe and family have moved their place of residence from Holly Hill to their old home on Pine street, at Seabreeze.

Mrs. William Douglas, one of Charleston's best known society ladies, is enjoying a stay at The Clarendon. Mr. Douglas spent Sunday here.

Charles Birchwood has accepted the position of engineer and captain of the yacht Ida, belonging to J. N. Gamble, the Ivory Soap manufacturer. The Ida is the handsomest craft on the river. She is about forty feet in length and is elegantly equipped.

J. M. Rogers, of Chicago, has purchased from W. F. Ronald a handsome building lot on Valley Street, north of The Colonades. The lot faces the Halifax River, and is a most admirable location. Mr. Rogers expects to build a winter home on the property to cost several thousand dollars this summer.

L. E. Burgess, traveling passenger agent of the Southern Railway Company, with headquarters in Baltimore, came down from Jacksonville Monday, and will remain here several days looking after the returning tourist travel.

Jno. C. Lusk, division passenger agent of the same road, accompanied Mr. Burgess to Daytona.

ENJOYING LIFE AT ORMOND.

Many Tourists Now at This Delightful Resort.—Dances and Other Social Functions.

Last Wednesday evening there was the regular weekly hop in the Hotel Ormond Casino and an unusually good time was enjoyed. There is always some kind of evening entertainment at Ormond and all are so popular that it is hard to tell which is more generally liked. Saturday evening there was a fine program of water sports on in the swimming pool. Besides the swimming and diving contests there were amusing tub races, walking greased poles, obstacle races, and diving for silver money. After the sports dancing was enjoyed in the casino until a late hour. During the past week the days have been filled with driving and boating parties, golf, tennis and all other sports accessible to the fun-loving ones among Ormond's many guests, and the automobile road to Daytona and New Smyrna is more and more popular each day. The program of the Sunday night concert is as fine as any ever put on at Ormond and thoroughly enjoyed by the guests of this hotel as well as by the many outside visitors.

Opera Co. Leaves.

Despite the number of social functions in progress, Wilman's Opera House, at Seabreeze, was fairly filled to greet the performance "Said Pasha" by the Beggar Prince Opera Company.

The show was fairly good, but those who saw the performance Friday night, in which "The Beggar Prince" was played, say that it did not come up to their expectations.

The company left this morning for Palatka, where they will fill an engagement.

Dr. B. Dorr Colby, one of the Windy City's most eminent physicians, is among the agreeable guests at The Clarendon. He is accompanied by Mrs. Colby. They expect to spend some time here.

A Poem for Today

THE CHOIR INVISIBLE
By George Eliot

GEORGE ELIOT (Mrs. Mary Ann Evans Lewes Cross) was born at Arbury farm, Warwick, England, Nov. 22, 1819; died at Chelsea, London, Dec. 22, 1880. Her father was Robert Evans. In 1841 she became assistant editor of the Westminster Review and held that position until 1853. Her fame as a writer rests on her novels. The poem below was written in 1867.

O H, may I join the choir invisible
Of those immortal dead who live again
In minds made better by their presence; live
In pulses stirred to generosity,
In deeds of daring rectitude, in scorn
Of miserable aims that end with self,
In thoughts sublime that pierce the night like stars
And with their mild persistence urge man's search
To vaster issues.

So to live is heaven—
To make undying music in the world,
Breathing as beatific souls that breathe
With growing away the growing life of man.
So we inherit that sweet purity
For which we struggled, failed and agonized
With widening retrospect that bred despair—
Rebellious flesh that would not be subdued.
A vicious parent slumming still its child,
Poor, anxious penitence is quick dissolved,
Its discords, quenched by meeting harmonies,
Die in the large and charitable air,
And all our rarer, better, truer self,
That sobbed, religiously in yearning song,
That watched to ease the burden of the world,
Laboriously tracing what must be
And what may yet be written, saw within
A worthier image for the sanctuary
And shaped it forth before the multitude, Divinely human, raising worship so
To higher reverence more mixed with love.
That better self shall live till human time
Shall fold its eyelids and the human sky
Be gathered like a scroll within the tomb
Unread forever.

This life to come,
Which martyred men have made more glorious
For us to strive to follow, may I reach
That purest heaven, be to other souls
The cup of strength in some great agony,
Enkindle generous ardor, feed pure love,
Beget the smiles that have no cruelty,
Be the sweet presence of a good diffused
And in diffusion even more intense,
So shall I join the choir invisible,
Whose music is the gladness of the world.

A Poem for Today

THE RULER OF THE QUEEN'S NAVEE
By William S. Gilbert

WILLIAM SCHWENK GILBERT, English dramatist and humorist, was born in London Nov. 18, 1836, and now resides near London. He was educated for the bar, but most of his life has been devoted to literature. His name is generally associated with that of the late Sir Arthur Sullivan, with whom he collaborated in producing a long series of comic operas. Gilbert furnished the libretto and Sullivan the music of "The Mikado," "Pinafore," "Pirates of Penzance" and many others. The song given below is sung by Sir Joseph Porter in "Pinafore." Mr. Gilbert also wrote the well known "Tab Ballads."

WHEN I was a lad I served a term
As office boy to an attorney's firm.
I cleaned the windows and I swept the floor,
And I polished up the handle of the big front door

As office boy I made such a mark
That they gave me the post of junior clerk.
I served the writs with a smile so bland,
And I copied all the letters in a big round hand.

I polished up the handle so care-free
That now I am the ruler of the queen's na-vee.
I copied all the letters in a hand so free,
And now I am the ruler of the queen's na-vee.

In serving writs I made such a name
That an article clerk I soon became.
I wore clean collars and a brand new suit
For the pass examination at the institute.
And that pass examination did so well for me
That now I am the ruler of the queen's na-vee.

Of legal knowledge I required such a grip
That they took me into the partnership.
And that junior partnership, I ween,
Was the only ship that I ever had seen.
But that kind of ship so suited me
That now I am the ruler of the queen's na-vee.

I grew so rich that I was sent
By a pocket borough into parliament.
I always voted at my party's call,
And I never thought of thinking for myself at all.
I thought so little they rewarded me
By making me the ruler of the queen's na-vee.

Now handsmen all, whoever you may be,
If you want to rise to the top of the tree;
If you want to be fettered to an office stool,
Be careful to be guided by this golden rule—
Stick close to your desks and never go to sea,
And you may all be rulers of the queen's na-vee.

The fair held in St. Augustine for the benefit of the Florida Hospital in that city ended over $3,000.

The market fields of Daytona are now reaping a harvest. In several of the places last night it was found necessary to turn people away.

Governor S. B. Broom and Hon. D. F.
Fletcher, of Jacksonville, passed through last Sunday night enroute to St. Augustine on business connected with the scheme of draining the Everglades.

Bonnie H. Harper, of Atlanta, Ga., representing the Harvey and Wood bottle, spent a day in Daytona for the purpose of last week. Mr. Harper was formerly editor of the "Sun" in Tulsa.

The household Yagelshinsky, belonging to W. J. Miller, who is in Miami Monday from Key West, with a party on board. The Yagelshinsky was in the river opposite Daytona for several weeks only in the season. The boat will leave the Key City in a few days on its way up the coast.

The bridge tournament, which was in progress a portion of last week at The Cleveland, came to a close on Saturday.
Mrs. W. A. Chapman, of Detroit, won honor first prize and Clark B. Mangumson won the gentlemen's first prize.
The tournament started with thirty-two players and dwindled down to two.

Jackson McCallough, one of Hastings', best-known and progressive farmers, is spending a day or two in the city. Mr.
McCallough planted a very big season in Hastings and he says that there are 2,200 acres planted in potatoes. He has been bargained for a thirty-acre farm at Fort Orange through Bright & Williams.
In the event he purchases the farm he will move to Fort Orange.

John Roberts was straggled before Justice of the Peace Smith at Daytona Beach, Monday, on the charge of assault. Roberts was held in $100 bond to await the trial of the Criminal Court. The same was sworn out by Austin D. Reedy, the deputy sheriff at Seaboard. It is alleged that Roberts drew a pistol on a woman and held it over her head when she was taken away from him he would have probably shot some one.

Since the announcement in The Daily

a railroad from Miami to Orlando, via Daytona, expressions of satisfaction have been heard from residents and vis-the proposition seem to think that it would be a paying investment.

Suggestions have been heard that it would be a wise plan to combine the would give a very attractive route in

The Launch West Wind Will be Taken to Jacksonville For Repairs.
The Landing Pipe Leaked.

The thirty-foot launch launch West
Wind, owned by F. Thompson, Bay A Fay and F. N. Young, of Boston, which was wrecked on the sandy shore, near Myrtle, about 11 o'clock Friday night, will be taken to Jacksonville for repairs.
This launch, which is only one year old and cost $3,000, was shipped in Jacksonville by rail during the early winter and has been and partly ruined since the last visit to the pier.

According to the story told by the wind, the launch pipe commenced to leak and the engine refused to work.
The wind was blowing high and the anchor dragged, throwing the launch back on the pier and badly damaging her.
The crew of the tug River French has been secured and she has gone to the scene with the wrecking bar puller.

Thereafter visited the launch and they found that parties had stripped it of small engine and other valuable articles.

The launch will be taken to Jackso-ville where it will be repaired. The crew will attempt to return to work.
If Jacksonville men being found a large freighter for the purpose of the wrecked launch, which they will use next season in coming about Florida waters.

DAYTONA AND ITS ATTRACTIONS.

DAYTONA is situated upon the west bank of the Halifax River, at its fairest expanse and midway between its source at Bulow Bay and its outlet at Mosquito Inlet. It is in latitude 29, seventy-four miles from St. Augustine and one mile from the Atlantic Ocean, and is acknowledged to be without a rival for beauty among the villages of the South. Its site is upon what was known as high hammock land that was crowned by nature with the most royal growth of majestic forest trees, and among these trees is the town of to-day, with its beautiful cottages and well-graded walks and streets. The result is that all along the wide avenues that intersect the town are lordly live and water oaks and hickories, many of them draped with graceful festoons of the gray Spanish moss, that overarch the street and walks, and among these are interspersed tall tropical palmettos, glossy-leaved magnolias, fragrant bays and coral-berried holly, and many other varieties, while in many places the wild grape, the trumpet vine and the ampelepis climb and cling among the branches forming shady bowers and adding grace and beauty.

The town lies parallel with the Halifax River, and extends for nearly two miles along the shore. This river is the delight of the angler and the yachtsman and forms one of the town's greatest attractions.

The main avenues that run parallel with or intersect the river are all 100 feet wide, except Beach street, which is about sixty-five feet, but has a half-mile of open, beautiful water abutting upon its eastern side, where the salt waves ebb and flow and along and across which comes the cooling, invigorating and health-giving breezes from off the wide Atlantic, which temper and render the Halifax climate one of the most perfect in the world. Daytona has many miles of well-graded, marled and shelled roads and streets, rendering it the

and added to these, but a mile away, are thirty miles of smooth, hard beach, that affords an unrivalled course for long-distance cycling and driving or automobile racing. No town of equal size, North or South, numbers so many wheelmen, and cycling is a favorite pastime with the tourists summer and winter.

The Beautiful Cottages
that have been erected during the past years and are being built are rendering Daytona as famous for its fine homes as for its beautiful river, trees and avenues, and they are adding yearly to its attractions.

Not the least of these attractions to those securing homes in the South, and ranking second only to healthfulness and perfection of climate, is the fact that its population is chiefly composed of cultivated and intelligent people, accustomed to the refinements of home and social life. Added to these features are good churches, good public and private schools, stores, hotels, laundry, meat markets, novelty works, an opera house, electric lights for street and house illumination, a good telephone system, ice factory, Lily Water Works, and hot and cold baths, etc., and everything else can be procured that is necessary to make life comfortable. An important feature in the healthfulness of this town is the

and iron, and holds sulphur in the shape of gas, which soon passes away. The Population of Daytona proper is about 1,800. Added to this is a suburban population on main shore and peninsula of about 1,000 at Kingston, Blake, Old Seabreeze or Goodall, Seabreeze and Silver Beach, which are properly a part of the town and population.

Daytona Beach
lies one mile east of the town. It is approached by three good bridges over the river and well-graded avenues, and is the principal summer resort south of St. Augustine. It has more tourists during the summer than all other places south of that city combined, and is also becoming a favorite winter resort. The beach is wide, firm and smooth, by many considered the finest in the world, and the surf bathing is safe and excellent summer and winter. People who have tried Northern and Western summer resorts declare that there are none so perfect as comfort as Daytona beach.

Automobile Race Meet.
The Florida East Coast Automobile Association conducts an annual race meet on the beach, which has now a universal reputation as the greatest automobile race course in the world. The Daytona-Ormond Beach is hard as macadam, and an ideal stretch of thirty or more miles without a break makes it the natural racing ground for America.

At low tide the beach is bare for 300 feet and neither carriage wheel, bicycle or pedestrian can make a hardly visible imprint on the smooth and well-packed sand. It is no uncommon sight to see sail-rigged bicycles speeding with the velocity of the wind before a stiff breeze along the smooth beach, thus affording the most exhilarating sport known to man. Besides these, miles of hard-shelled, palm-fringed boulevards bring the lovers of the wheel and vehicles into direct touch with the mainland over the broad bridges which span the splendid Halifax River.

The beach from the sandy bluffs to the lowest point at ebbtide, measures about 600 feet, and the average depth of the surf measures about two feet. A continuous gentle swell rolls in from the ocean from one to two feet in depth under normal conditions, making the beach an attractive and absolutely safe place for surf-bathing. Here the infant as well as the gray-haired veteran of many summers, can safely enjoy the luxury of a sea bath while the stronger and expert swimmer can venture out further to test his strength and skill in battling with the inexhaustible powers of the mighty ocean.

The Peninsula
lying between river and ocean is one half mile wide, and is being rapidly improved, and there are many fine cottages and several good hotels, a opera house, two ocean piers, beach pavilion and a large casino.

A Remarkable Feature
at Daytona has been the yearly improvement in the style and value of the buildings that are being erected for homes. Men of capital of the North and West have become awakened to its advantages for winter residences, and valuable lots are being purchased and costly houses, beautiful in design and finish, are being erected, and beautiful homes, the abodes of wealth and culture are multiplying.

Seabreeze (City Beautiful) and Goodall are settlements on the Ocean side of the peninsula across the Halifax River from Daytona. At the foot of Ocean Boulevard, Seabreeze, a pier reaches 600 feet across the beach into the swelling surf of the ocean. This pier is a favorite resort of those who delight in the sport of fishing. The surf here abounds in trout, pompano, yellowtail, snapper, whiting, drum, sheepshead and many other varieties of edible fish. During the fall season the famous sea bass affords royal sport, and it has been no uncommon occurrence to land a thousand pounds of this gamey fish in an afternoon. Individuals of them ranging from fifteen to thirty-five pounds in weight. Not only does the ocean offer this splendid sport but the Halifax River, only half a mile back of the ocean, is equally famous for its fine fishing, and the varieties that abound in the river are present in the river. Hunting and fishing good. Experienced guides and dogs may be had at reasonable prices.

I. M. Cross has returned from Panama Springs. He expects to remain in Daytona about a week.

C. A. Whitner, of Jacksonville, representing the W. P. Sumner Company, is in the city on business.

T. O. Rouse and J. L. Jacobs, two well known Jacksonville traveling salesmen, are in the city on business.

But few were present at the Army last evening to participate in the dance that was scheduled to take place. Owing to the small number it was decided to postpone the affair.

is very much enthused over her future prospects. "When we get to running through Havana trains from New York to Havana you will see Cuba jump into such prominence as has no other country," he said.

"It will only be a matter of a few months now before we will float railroad trains from New York into Havana harbor so that passengers will not have to leave their comfortable compartments in our Pullmans between the cities. The trip will be made within a half day, as short a time as it requires to travel to the winter resorts of Florida, and the additional attraction of a foreign city and foreign country will bring thousands of tourists here. We are now preparing the plans for this schedule."

The friends of Mrs. W. E. Thomas in this city will be pleased to learn that her condition is improving. She is in Atlanta, a patient in a sanitarium.

Owing to the low water at the head of the Halifax on Monday, the Uncle Sam did not make the Tomoka trip. This morning that pleasure boat carried about 75 people on the journey.

Commodore and Mrs. J. H. Horton, who have been here the past two months have gone on a trip to St. Augustine and from there will go to New York. The launch High Ball, belonging to the commodore, has been placed in charge of McCoy Bros.

The foundations for the handsome new home for M. Kling, on Magnolia Avenue, next to the Parkinson House, have been laid, and the building will be rapidly pushed to completion. When completed it will be one of the most imposing residential structures in the city.
